

C-Suite 16

16 reasons the private sector engages with biodiversity conservation.

01

BIODIVERSITY

Creating a net positive impact.

02

SOCIAL LICENSE TO OPERATE

Connecting with local communities across fence lines.

03

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

Changing the conversation with regulators.

04

RISK MANAGEMENT

Assessing vulnerabilities and managing impacts.

05

EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

Designing nature-based initiatives accessible to all.

06

PERMIT ACQUISITION OR RENEWAL

Illustrating intent to exceed expectations.

07

INTEGRATION

Providing common conservation currency across business units and borders.

08

EDUCATION

Using corporate lands for STEM and environmental education.

09

SUSTAINABILITY GOALS

Developing a positive environmental metric.

10

REPORTING

Utilizing a ready-made, customizable biodiversity KPI.

11

TALENT ACQUISITION

Sharing the values of the workforce of the future.

12

REMEDIATION

Developing innovative remedies and end uses.

13

MITIGATION

Exceeding expectations when disturbance cannot be avoided.

14

REAL ESTATE

Maximizing the diverse values of land holdings.

15

COST SAVINGS

Decreasing land management costs.

16

NATURE-BASED SOLUTIONS

Solving environmental challenges with ecosystem based approaches.

wildlifehc.org

WILDLIFE HABITAT
COUNCILSM